

Centre of Discourse Studies

SYMPOSIUM: EXTREME RIGHT DISCOURSES

23 – 27 November 2020

CENTRE OF DISCOURSE STUDIES

discoursestudies.org/symposium-2020

PROGRAM

Centre of Discourse Studies 2020 Symposium on Extreme Right Discourses

23-27 NOVEMBER

INTRODUCTION

In recent years, the extreme right has had more visibility and has held important political positions in Europe and in other parts of the world such as the United States and Brazil. The purpose of this symposium is to analyze, explain, and understand the discourses of the extreme right and their rise to power from a diverse perspective (journalistic, sociological, political, historical, discursive, etc.) with the idea of looking for tools to counter forms of extremism that violate human rights, justice, and democracy.

INVITED SPEAKERS

Johannes Angermüller

Carmen Aguilera-Carnerero

Xavier Giró Martí

Luisa Martín Rojo

Cinzia Padovani

John E. Richardson

Miguel Urbán

Ruth Wodak

PROGRAM

Monday, November 23rd, CET/GMT+1 Time Zone

12:00-14:00: Workshop on Critical Analysis of Extreme Right Discourse

15:30-16:00: Welcome session

Teun van Dijk, Director of the Centre of Discourse Studies

16:00-18:00: Presentations on post-graduate research (Spanish)

Zacharie Hatolong Boho, Universidad de Ngaoundéré, "Ultraderecha vs contraderecha en la España actual: interacciones socio-discursivas en las calles de Alcalá de Henares, Barcelona, Madrid y Salamanca."

Pablo Rocamora Pérez, Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia, "Fascistas del tercer milenio: una aproximación al discurso de la organización española Hogar Social a través de sus publicaciones en Facebook."

Oswaldo Bolo Varela, Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos, "Terruqueo o la invalidación social del enemigo potencial."

18:15-19:30: Presentations on post-graduate research (Spanish)

Mauricio Esteban Alarcón Silva, Universidad de la Frontera-Universidad Austral, "Discurso de derecha y resistencia al cambio constitucional."

Júlio Antonio Bonatti Santos, Universidade Federal de São Carlos / The Open University, "Far-right and fake news: Brazil in the post-truth era."

Tuesday, November 24th, CET/GMT+1 Time Zone

15:30-18:00: Talks by invited speakers (Spanish)

Carmen Aguilera-Carnerero, Universidad de Granada, "De #laReconquista a #Niunpasoatrás: Estrategias discursivas de VOX online."

Xavier Giró Martí, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, "Física, Química y geometría del discurso de odio."

PROGRAM

Wednesday, November 25th, CET/GMT+1 Time Zone

15:30-18:00: Talks by invited speakers (English)

Cinzia Padovani, Southern Illinois University Carbondale, "The Ultra-right, mediatic processes and discourses."

Johannes Angermuller, Open University, "Fascism 2.0? Or, the affective logics in contemporary right-wing discourse."

Thursday, November 26th, CET/GMT+1 Time Zone

15:30-18:00: Talks by invited speakers (English)

Ruth Wodak, Lancaster University/University Vienna, "'Fortress Europe'? A Politics of Shameless Normalization."

John E. Richardson, University of the Sunshine Coast, "'The economy' in British fascist discourse. Or, 'what fascists write about when they write about capitalism'."

Friday, November 27th, CET/GMT+1 Time Zone

15:30-18:00: Talks by invited speakers (Spanish)

Luisa Martín Rojo & Angela D. Buscalioni, Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, "Raíces y desafíos políticos del discurso negacionista."

Miguel Urbán, Diputado al Parlamento Europeo, "Un repaso a la Emergencia de Vox en el contexto de la ola reaccionaria global."

18:15-18:45: Closing session